

Dellner appoints Thomas Leander as new Chief Financial Officer

Thomas Leander has been appointed as Dellner new Chief Financial Officer (CFO) as of 6 June 2022. He succeeds Thom Mathisen who has been at Dellner since 2019.

Thomas Leander has a consistent track record with more than 20 years of executive leadership of major finance teams in more than 40 countries.

He started his career at ABB as an Engineer but his interest in finance led him to study for his MBA at Örebro University. Graduating in 1991, he returned to ABB and one year later was promoted to Finance Manager in Saudi Arabia. Thomas held this role until 1997 when he was appointed as Country Chief Financial Officer at ABB Holding in Istanbul/Turkey. In 2004 he moved to a similar role for ABB Holding in Cairo/Egypt.

After 12 years in Turkey and Egypt, Thomas moved to ABB's head office in Zurich where he held several leading positions before finally being appointed CFO for ABB Robotics.

In 2019 Thomas began a new role as Senior Vice President Finance/Strategic Business Unit CFO for Kalmar Mobile Solutions, a Strategic Business Unit within the Cargotec Corporation and part of the Cargotec Group.

His valuable experience in driving growth strategies, innovation and transformation across manufacturing, sales, service and project business and in a multinational environment will prove invaluable for Dellner as we continue our journey to become the global leader in Train Connection Systems.

Thomas Leander:

"My impression of Dellner. I see in front of me a fine Swedish company, operating in an interesting market with strong products and a fine entrepreneurial spirit. I'm really looking forward to being a part of this great company and of the growth journey to achieve the strategy and goal to be the global leader within our niche."

Thom Mathisen:

“Really good that my successor will be in place soon and looking forward to a month of hand over before I leave end of June. We both have a background in ABB and even if not worked closely I have only heard positives about Thomas, both as a professional but also as a true people oriented person which feels good when handing over my fantastic team members all around the globe.”

Anders Lindberg:

“Thomas’s financial background and organizational leadership experience will serve Dellner well and make him ideally qualified to continue the development of the financial function that Thom and his team has started. I look forward to working closely with Thomas as we enter our next chapter, and I would like to thank Thom for his contribution to Dellner and wish him all the best in his future endeavours.”
